

Starting the Adult Literacy Program

Ready to prepare for the TASC exam? (formerly GED)

We offer classes and home study for adults.

The first step is to attend a free orientation session.

Orientations are a total of seven hours given over two days with locations in Saratoga Springs and Glens Falls.

- During orientation, you will learn how our programs work and find out about the high school equivalency exam (TASC, formerly GED)
- We will find out your reading and math levels and what might be required of you to prepare for the TASC exam
- You will be guided as to which program fits your needs best - classes or home study

To sign up for an orientation session, call: 581-3560 or 746-3560.
